Year of Introduction: The year in which B.Arch course was introduced

Status of CBCS Implementation: Yes, if CBCS or ECS (Elective course system) are there in the course

Year of Implementation: The year in which CBCS/ECS implemented in the curriculum

Year of Revision: The year in which curriculum revision done. In case revised more than once, give the year in which higher percentage of the curriculum was revised.

Percentage of change in syllabus: Enter the percentage of syllabus change. Only more than 20% change will be considered as change. Calculate the percentage dividing the entire syllabus into certain modules and seeing how many modules are changed. For considering 20% change, first identify courses in which 20% change has taken place and then 20% of the subjects should have such change. Clear?

Value added courses are courses which are optional and offered beyond/outside the curriculum that add value and help the students in getting placed. These courses are offered by the institution for student empowerment and enhance the value of the curriculum by amplifying, supplementing and if need be replacing such parts or features as have become ineffective or obsolete

Either the university can offer the courses, or they can offer the courses with third party provider with proper MoU. In such cases the copy of the MoU needs to be uploaded.
